CERTIFICATION

I certify that to the best of my knowledge the information provided on this application form and in other admission related documents is true, accurate, complete, and is voluntarily given. I hereby give my permission for this information to be used by Southeastern Seminary for the purpose of considering my admission, for academic advisement, and for maintaining student records. I fully understand that false or misleading information provided to the Seminary as a part of this application or in the accompanying documents may invalidate the approval process or, if admission has already occurred, may be considered as sufficient grounds for dismissal and/or for the denial or the revoking of an official academic transcript and/or degree. Further, I understand that illegal drug usage, homosexual activity, heterosexual misconduct, cheating, abusive behavior, and/or other actions contrary to Biblical moral standards or to Seminary policies also stand as sufficient grounds for denial of admission and/or dismissal at any time from the Seminary.

My signature indicates my understanding of and agreement with the conditions under which this application is made.
