

ANT GREENHAM, Ph.D.
agreenham@sebts.edu

BORN

Anthony Bryan Greenham (changed name to Ant Bryan Greenham on receipt of American citizenship, April 10th, 2015)
Place and Date of Birth: Durban, South Africa; June 28th, 1954

EDUCATION

High School completed (with merit) at Durban High School, 1971
Bachelor of Arts (majors in Geography and Biblical Studies) completed at University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN), Pietermaritzburg, 1975
Higher Education Diploma completed at UKZN, Durban, 1976
Master of Arts in Biblical Studies completed (summa cum laude) at Criswell College, Dallas, TX, 1990
Missiological Courses completed at Criswell College in 1991
Ph.D. in Missions (Islamic Studies) completed at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS), Wake Forest, NC, 2004; Dissertation: Muslim Conversions to Christ: An Investigation of Palestinian Converts Living in the Holy Land (published by WCIU in 2011)

EMPLOYMENT

Religious Education Teacher at Beachwood Boys High School, Durban, 1977-1979
Cadet at South African Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA), Pretoria, 1980
Third Secretary at South African Embassy, Tel Aviv, Israel, 1981-1984
Foreign Service Officer at DFA, Pretoria, 1985-1986
Intern to Dr. Paige Patterson, President of Criswell College, 1987-1991
Assistant Director at DFA, Pretoria, 1991-1993
Opened the first South African Embassy in Amman, Jordan, as Chargé d'Affaires, in 1993; Served in this capacity until 1995
First Secretary, South African Embassy, Amman, 1995-1998
Deputy Director at DFA, Pretoria, 1998-2000
Instructor at the College at Southeastern, Wake Forest, NC, 2001-2005
Elected to Faculty of SEBTS as Assistant Professor of Missions and Islamic Studies in April 2005, Associate Professor since April 2013
Program Coordinator of BA in Missions at SEBTS since May 2012
Book Review Editor of Southeastern Theological Review since June 2013
Received Excellence in Teaching Award in August 2017

OTHER

Converted to Christ on December 9, 1972
Married Eva Skaugen on March 25, 1978
Children: Jane, born April 7, 1980; Paul, born July 21, 1982
Publications: Making it in the Middle East (by "Bryan Thompson," 1999); The Questioning God: An Inquiry for Muslims, Jews, and Christians (2012); Muslim Conversions to Christ: A Critique of Insider Movements in Islamic Contexts (with Ayman S. Ibrahim, 2018).
Pastor of Mustard Seed Fellowship Baptist Church since June 2012.