

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary
MIS 6902 Missions Practicum

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary exists to glorify the Lord Jesus Christ by equipping students to serve the church and fulfill the Great Commission.

Course Description:

MIS 6902 Missions Practicum (3 hrs.): A combination of academic study and field missionary experience conducted in selected settings under approved supervision, in cooperation with the North American Mission Board or the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and/or Baptist State conventions and local churches. (3 hrs.) (Note: This course is for the students taking trips lasting longer than 60 days. The student must complete MIS 6901 first or take the two courses concurrently.)

Course Objectives:

1. To provide the learners with a practical and hands on missions experience as they share the Gospel in cross-cultural situations.
2. To provide the learners with opportunities to study and engage the culture of the focus people group.
3. To identify and examine significant strategies and issues related to Christian missions.
4. To challenge the learners to seek practical and personal application of the Great Commission in their lives.

Course Requirements:

1. 900 pages of reading
2. A five page reflection paper which integrates the academic and personal aspects of the trip or time spent on the field.
3. A three page book review for each book read. (All books must be approved by the professor. At least one book should be related to the people group or country and at least one other book should be related to missions).
4. Submit all assignments at one time to Dr. James (ajames@sebts.edu).

Due Dates:

| | |
|----------------------|------------|
| Fall Semester: | December 1 |
| January/Winter Term: | February 1 |
| Spring Semester: | May 1 |
| Summer Term: | August 1 |

If the student does not complete the work during the semester of enrollment, an Incomplete will be given. An Incomplete automatically changes to a F after 30 days. However, a grade change will be processed after the submission of all of the required work. The student is encouraged to complete the work ASAP, but there is not a time limitation related to the grade change possibility.