

Anna Daub

Ph.D., Applied Theology-Missiology

Director of Special Projects and Partnership for Global Theological Initiatives

MTS Program Coordinator

P.O. Box 1889

Wake Forest, NC 27588

(919) 761-2308

adaub@sebts.edu

Education

- Doctor of Philosophy in Applied Theology-Missiology, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (December 2021)
  - Dissertation: Vern Poythress's Perspectivalism in a Global Context: A Symphony of Contextual Theologies Seeking Harmony
- Master of Divinity with Missiology concentration, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (May 2014)
- Bachelor of Science in Biology, Howard Payne University (May 2008)

Teaching, Administrative, and Other Job Experience

- Director of Special Projects and Partnerships for Global Theological Initiatives, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS), August 2021-present
- Assistant Professor of Missions, SEBTS, Fall 2022-present
- Adjunct Professor, SEBTS, Fall 2021-present
- Adjunct Instructor, SEBTS, Fall 2018, Summer 2019, Fall 2019, Summer 2020
- Administrative Assistant for Global Theological Initiatives, SEBTS, September 2015-August 2021
- Biblical Women's Institute Professor, SEBTS, January 2017-January 2019
- Secretary for the Bush Center for Faith and Culture, SEBTS, August 2015-September 2015
- Data Entry Strategist, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (SWBTS), June 2014-June 2015
- Administrative Assistant for International Student Services, SWBTS, September 2011-June 2014
- Co-teacher for Bible Storying Seminars, International Mission Board, Winter 2012-Winter 2014
- Journeyman, International Mission Board, 2008-2010

Publications

- "Theology and Missions," All Our Minds: Why Women Should Study Theology, (Athens, GA: College & Clayton Press, Nov 2021)
- Regular Contributor to Missions Mosaic, the WMU magazine, Fall 2020-present.
- Critical Book Reviews for the Southeastern Theological Review, Fall 2018-present

- Contributor to the Center for Great Commission Studies Blog, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, January 2017-present
- Regular Contributor to IMB website, January 2018-July 2019
- Regular Contributor to the Biblical Womanhood Blog, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, February 2014-May 2015
- Small Group Missions Curriculum, Texas WMU, 2012

Papers Delivered

- “To Whom Are We Reconciled?: A Prioritist Mission of Reconciliation,” Regional Evangelical Missiological Society Meeting, March 19, 2022, co-presenter with Keelan Cook.
- “John Calvin’s Letters to the Nicodemites and Their Implications for Insider Movement Discussions,” National Evangelical Theological Society Meeting, November 18, 2020.
- “Unity and Diversity: Responses to Contextual Theologies,” SEBTS PhD Symposium, April 17, 2020; National Evangelical Theological Society, October 10, 2020.
- “Perspectives on Charles Nyamiti’s Divine Descendancy: Using Vern Poythress’ Perspectivalism to Engage Global Theology,” SEBTS Society for Women in Scholarship Mini-Conference, November 20, 2018
- “The Missing Female Voice in the Majority World: Cultural and Economic Reasons Women are not in Theological Education,” Regional Evangelical Missiological Society Meeting, March 17, 2017 and National Evangelical Missiological Society Meeting, September 16, 2017

Awards

- School of Evangelism and Missions Presidential Scholar, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, May 2014
- Summa Cum Laude, May 2008

Cross Cultural Experience

- South Asia, International Mission Board’s Journeyman Program, October 2008 to November 2010, return trip Summer 2011 and November 2014
- Peru, International Mission Board’s Reap North Summer Program, Summer 2007 and Summer 2006
- Other international experiences include: Nepal, Kenya, Uganda, Australia, France, Germany, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Belgium, Thailand, East Asia, Mexico, and Canada