Prep Questions:

- II. Be prepared to answer each of the following questions. You may use an unmarked Bible, but no other resources. The best responses will give clear evidence of knowledge of the resources listed above.
1. Biblically and theologically define “Christian leadership.” Be certain to explain what makes leadership distinctly “Christian.”
 2. Describe the role of the pastor of a local church, giving particular attention to the pastor’s calling, qualifications, and responsibilities.

3. Develop a strategy for leading a Christian organization through change. Include clear evidence of your knowledge of theories for leading through change and conflict.
4. Discuss Jesus' leadership style by situating his style within the categories of Robert Dale and others.
5. Describe an effective process for leaders to make appropriate decisions, beginning with Peter Drucker's suggestions.
6. Elaborate on the importance of the leader's character within both secular and Christian leadership.
7. Describe four mistakes that Christian leaders make, and offer a correction for each mistake. You may use a maximum of two mistakes from Finzel's list.
8. Assume you are the new pastor of a declining church. Based on your readings about leadership and organizations, design a revitalization strategy for the first three years of your pastorate.
9. Prepare a lecture on "Characteristics of a Christian Leader." Assume you are teaching a seminary class.
10. Critique the concept of a "Level 5 Leader" in light of scriptural teachings.
11. Develop an essay describing the image of "shepherd" as a leader in the Bible.
12. Discuss the relationship between "character" and "competency" in a Christian leader.
